MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS
(Office of the Registrar General, India)

New Delhi, the 4th December, 2000

G.S.R. 499. — In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of Constitution and in supersession of the Office of the Registrar General India and ex-officio Census Commissioner for India (Printing Officer) Recruitment Rules, 1986 except as respects things done or omitted to be done before such supersession, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to the posts of Printing Officer in the Office of the Registrar General, India, namely:

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Office of the Registrar General, India (Printing Officer) Recruitment Rules, 2000.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Number of posts, classification and scale of pay.—The number of the said post, its classification, and the scale of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 2 to 4 of the Schedule annexed to these rules.

3. Method of recruitment, age limit, educational qualifications etc.—The method of recruitment, age limit, educational qualifications and other matters relating to the said post shall be as specified in columns 5 to 16 of the Schedule aforesaid.

4. Disqualifications.—No person,—

(a) who has entered into or contracted a marriage with a person having spouse living, or

(b) who, having a spouse living, has entered into or contracted a marriage with any persons, shall be eligible for appointment to the said post.

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that such marriage is permissible under the personal law applicable to such person and the other party to the marriage and that there are other grounds for so doing exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

5. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, and in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

6. Saving.—Nothing in these rules shall affect reservations, relaxation of age limit, and other concession required to be provided for the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes, Other Backward Classes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the Central Government from time to time in this regard.
